No. 80

Sir,

With reference to your Kamarese memo: No: 36, dated 15-7-95 forwarding the "Urzee" of Sahiekobali toddy farmer of Hodagunoor and Lakikere farms in the Davengere Taluk for 1894-95, I have the honor to state that the farmer in question appears to have sustained a considerable amount of loss during the year 1894-95 owing to an out-break of Cholera in and about the villages where his toddy shops were located.

2. For the arrears viz Rs: 1500-4-0 due as his Sureties', properties. are under attach-ment. Under the circumstances represented by the farmer I propose giving him six months time to clear his arrears on the distinct understanding that the arrears are to be cleared by six monthly pay-ments and that the property under attachment be sold as soon as the farmer fails to pay up any one of those instalments.
